

- Tuesday, November 19th

Vocabulary: Write pyramids with each word from the vocabulary list seen today.

List #8

“Water everywhere”

1. waterfall	5. sea level	9. freeze
2. wet	6. lake	10. fresh water
3. sea	7. glacier	11. swamp
4. float	8. drop of water	12. river

- Wednesday, November 20th

Reading: Attachment 1. “Proofreading a text”. (Print, answer and paste attachment 1 in your white notebook).

Science: Bring a boiled egg to the classroom.

- Thursday, November 21th

Writing: Write 1 page journal “Revolution’s Day”. (In your journal, write about “Revolution’s Day”. Follow the journal steps).

Grammar: Attachment 2. “Present Perfect Progressive”. (Print, answer and paste attachment 2 in your white notebook).

Attachment 1

PROOFREADING A TEXT

Read the text carefully and correct all the grammar mistakes using the proofreading marks. Use a red color or pen.

Thanksgiving

thanksgiving day is a national holiday celebrated on various dates in the United States canada some of the Caribbean islands, and Liberia. It began as a day of giving tanks and sacrifice for the blessing of the harvest and of the preceding year. Similarly named festival holidais occur in germany New England and japan thanksgiving is celebrated on the second monday of October in canada and on the fourth thursday of November in the unitedStates, and around the same part of the year in other places. although Thanksgiving has istorical roots in religious cultural traditions, it has long been celebrated as a secular holiday as well

Attachment 2

PRESENT PERFECT PROGRESSIVE

Complete the sentences in present perfect progressive.

1. The glacier _____ (carve) rocks in the mountains for a long time.
2. That faucet _____ (leak) all morning.
3. I _____ (watch) the waterfall for 45 minutes.
4. We _____ (live) by the lake since 2010.
5. The dirty water _____ (sit) in the sink since he washed the dishes.
6. Mom _____ (soak) her feet in the ocean all afternoon.